MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE FINANCIAL ADVISORY AND INTERMEDIARY SERVICES BILL

INTRODUCTORY

1. The Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Bill (“the Bill”) regulates the business of rendering financial services to clients as regards a large range of financial products. In terms of the Bill such providers need to be licensed, and professional conduct is controlled through codes of conduct and enforcement measures.

2. The Bill was originally drafted on the basis of a framework of specifications, as provided by the Policy Board for Financial Services and Regulation, which only covered the furnishing of advice. The ambit of the Bill has since been extended to all intermediary services rendered in respect of financial products as defined in the Bill.

3. Generally speaking the Bill covers ground not regulated by any other legislative measure in the Republic, especially as regards the furnishing of advice on the purchase of, or investment in, financial products. The Bill seeks to establish, in that regard, a new properly regulated profession. As regards persons rendering other intermediary services mentioned in the Bill (for instance, the management of investments), many of their activities are presently regulated to a limited extent by other laws. The Bill will result in the necessary systematisation and rationalisation of the current fragmented regulation of activities very similar in nature. A more uniform approach, accompanied by the necessary standardisation in the regulation of such activities by a single regulator as proposed in the Bill, will not only remove confusion but should result in a more professional and responsible intermediary sector, as well as better informed clients of financial services. At the heart of the Bill lies the protection of such clients.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES IN DRAFTING THE BILL

4. The following principles were considered important in drafting the Bill and were adhered to as far as possible:

- (a) The Bill was designed to be free-standing and complete as far as possible. Reference is made in the Bill to a proposed new Collective Investment Schemes Control Act which will soon enter the Parliamentary stream. This proposed Act will deal comprehensively with investment schemes where a pooling of client funds occurs.
- (b) There was a consistent endeavour to produce a more “user friendly” Bill. The language and content have been simplified as far as possible to ease interpretation and to promote clarity.
- (c) A deliberate attempt was made to create regulatory flexibility by providing for circumscribed discretionary power.
- (d) Where the powers of the registrar are such as to increase the ability to act swiftly and decisively, sufficient checks and balances have been introduced to protect fundamental rights.
- (e) Due to the costs associated with compliance, there was an endeavour not to impose any unnecessary costly regulatory requirements.
- (f) It was accepted that it would not be in the public interest if the authorisation and compliance requirements were too strict or burdensome for the authorised financial services providers and their representatives. Consequently provision is firstly made for consultation with the Advisory Committee on Financial Services Providers (representative of the relevant sectors of the financial services industry and clients) in the making of regulations on the requirements for authorisation as well as the drafting of codes of conduct. Provision is secondly made for phasing in of the authorisation provisions and the granting of appropriate exemptions where justified.
- (g) Several enforcement provisions already appearing in other Acts of Parliament have with the necessary changes been included in the Bill, e.g. the establishment of a statutory ombud (Part I of Chapter VI); the granting of civil remedies to the registrar (Clause 33) and the declaration of undesirable practices (Clause 34).

CLAUSE BY CLAUSE ANALYSIS OF BILL

5. Introductory provisions (Clause 1): Definitions

The definitions are contained in Clause 1, particularly those which determine the ambit of the Bill, e.g.: “advice” (excluding a number of cases where, e.g. banks give advice to clients on deposits and boards of pension fund organisations and trustees of friendly societies give advice to relevant members), “client”, “financial services provider”, “financial product” and “representative” (excluding clerical, administrative and other merely supporting staff).

6. Chapter I (Clauses 2-6): Administration of Act

This Chapter deals with the general administration of the Bill:

- (a) the creation of the office of the registrar of financial services providers, being the Executive Officer of the Financial Services Board (FSB), is provided for in Clause 2;
- (b) Clause 3 deals with the way in which the registrar interacts with the persons to whom the Bill applies;
- (c) specific powers for the registrar to intervene swiftly and effectively are provided for in Clause 4;
- (d) the Advisory Committee on Financial Services Providers is established in terms of Clause 5 and its general functioning is provided for;
- (e) the delegation of functions by the Minister of Finance, the FSB and the registrar is provided for in Clause 6, including powers to delegate to industry organisations recognised by the Financial Services Board.

7. Chapter II (Clauses 7-12): Authorisation of financial services providers

This Chapter deals with the authorisation of financial services providers:

- (a) Clause 7 prohibits a person from acting as a financial services provider unless authorised by a licence issued by the registrar. Provision is also made for the consequences of a transaction concluded by a client with a product supplier with the intermediation of an unauthorised financial services provider;
- (b) Clause 8 deals with the applications of persons who wish to act as financial services providers, prescribing fit and proper requirements and powers of the registrar as regards the granting or refusal of applications and the duties and obligations of licensees;
- (c) Clause 9 deals with circumstances where authorisations may be suspended;
- (d) Clause 10 deals with the withdrawal of licences, and Clause 11 with the ultimate lapsing of licences;
- (e) Clause 12 deals with the granting of exemptions to product suppliers who are authorised as financial institutions in terms of other legislation, from submitting all information otherwise required from an applicant.

8. Chapter III (Clauses 13-14): Representatives of authorised financial services providers

This Chapter deals with representatives of authorised financial services providers who render financial services on behalf of such providers and which providers, on their part, accept responsibility for the activities of the representatives:

- (a) Clause 13 sets out their qualifications and authority and obliges authorised financial services providers to keep proper records of their representatives and to ensure that they comply with applicable codes of conduct;
- (b) Clause 14 provides for the debarment of persons to act as representatives of authorised financial services providers where they are no longer fit and proper persons to act as such.

9. Chapter IV (Clauses 15-16): Codes of conduct

This Chapter deals with codes of conduct with which authorised financial services providers and their representatives have to comply in the carrying on of their businesses:

- (a) Clause 15 empowers the registrar to draft and publish differentiating codes in consultation with the Advisory Committee and other interested parties;
- (b) Clause 16 deals extensively with the principles on which such codes shall be based, comprising, inter alia, sound principles of business conduct, requirements in respect of proper disclosures, advertising and guarantees or professional indemnity or fidelity insurance cover to be maintained by authorised financial services providers.

10. Chapter V (Clauses 17-19): Duties of authorised financial services providers

This Chapter deals with a range of duties of authorised financial services providers to be carried out in the course of conducting their businesses as such providers:

- (a) Clause 17 requires the appointment of compliance officers and sets out compliance arrangements;
- (b) Clause 18 requires the maintenance of certain records and imposes certain reporting duties;
- (c) Clause 19 provides for auditing requirements.

11. Chapter VI (Clauses 20-39): Enforcement

This Chapter is divided into two Parts:

11.1 Part I (Clauses 20-32) provides for the creation of an independent ombud scheme for expedient and informal resolution of disputes between authorised financial services providers or representatives and their clients:

- (a) Clause 20 provides for the Office of the Ombud;
- (b) Clause 21 provides for the appointment of the Ombud by the FSB;
- (c) Clause 22 provides for the funding of the Office of the Ombud, with a budget to be approved by the FSB;
- (d) Clause 23 provides for the accountability of the Ombud as regards the funds of the Office and, in other respects, to the FSB;
- (e) Clause 24 provides for general administrative powers of the Ombud;
- (f) Clause 25 provides that the Office of the Ombud may only be disestablished or liquidated by an Act of Parliament;
- (g) Clause 26 grants powers to the FSB to make rules, making clear who may use the scheme and in what circumstances, as well as regards the procedure to be applied to disputes; the FSB may also set case fees;
- (h) Clause 27 deals with the receipt of complaints, prescription requirements and jurisdiction of the Ombud in the investigation of complaints; the Ombud may, in dealing with a complaint, follow any procedure which may include mediation; in order to resolve a complaint speedily by conciliation, the Ombud may make a recommendation to the parties which on acceptance has the effect of a final determination;
- (i) Clause 28 deals with determinations by the Ombud; if a complaint is determined in favour of a complainant, the respondent may be ordered to pay compensation up to a maximum limit which may be set by the FSB, which limit may be different for different kinds of complaints; a respondent may also be ordered to take steps to rectify the matter complained of; the FSB may also make rules authorising cost awards; in this regard it is regarded as prudent to provide the FSB with the ability to make rules giving the Ombud a discretion to make a cost award also against a complainant in extreme cases; provision is also made for appeals to the FSB board of appeal;
- (j) Clause 29 provides for record-keeping by the Ombud;
- (k) Clause 30 provides for annual reports by the Ombud;
- (l) Clause 31 provides for offences and penalties as regards interference with the functioning of the Ombud;
- (m) Clause 32 generally empowers the registrar to take steps for the promotion of client education and awareness of the Office of the Ombud and other enforcement measures contained in the Bill.

11.2 Part II (Clauses 33-39) provides for other enforcement measures:

- (a) Clause 33 provides for powers of the registrar to apply to the Court for orders restraining unlawful conduct by authorised financial services providers, representatives and other persons, and so to apply for compensation orders in favour of persons who suffered damage or loss in consequence of contraventions;

- (b) Clause 34 regulates the declaration by the registrar of undesirable business practices for authorised financial services providers;
- (c) Clause 35 empowers the Minister of Finance to make regulations regarding detailed matters relevant to the application of the Bill, for the purpose of supplementing the substantive provisions of the Bill;
- (d) Clauses 36 and 37 regulate offences under the Bill and the assessment of fines and penalties by the Court;
- (e) Clause 38 provides for the registrar's powers in relation to the sequestration of estates, winding-up and closure of businesses of authorised financial services providers;
- (f) Clause 39 provides a general right of appeal to the FSB board of appeal, to persons aggrieved by decisions and other acts of the registrar or the Ombud under the Bill.

12. Chapter VII (Clauses 40-46): Miscellaneous

This Chapter deals with miscellaneous matters:

- (a) Clause 40 saves the common law rights of clients to take civil or criminal action against authorised (and unauthorised) financial services providers and representatives, e.g. actions for damages on the ground of breaches of statutory duties;
- (b) Clause 41 regulates incidental matters connected with fees and penalties payable to and recoverable by the registrar;
- (c) Clause 42 regulates disclosure of information between the registrar and other foreign or domestic supervisory or regulatory authorities, and to State departments or organs, representative bodies of the financial services industry and self-regulating organisations;
- (d) Clause 43 contains the customary limitation of liability provisions as regards functionaries acting under the Bill in any bona fide manner;
- (e) Clause 44 contains exemption provisions enabling the registrar to grant exemptions from the provisions of the Bill particularly in cases where the application of the Bill, may cause prejudice or hardship to persons instantly confronted with licensing requirements, and where the granting of exemptions will not be inimical to the public interest;
- (f) Clause 45 deals with cases where the Bill will not apply (mostly covering cases where statutory bodies are involved which are already regulated sufficiently under other laws), and the amendment or repeal of other laws (set out in detail in the Schedule to the Bill) in order to prevent unnecessary overlapping and duplication in regulation; and
- (g) Clause 46 contains the customary short title and commencement provision of the Bill.

CONSULTATIVE PROCESS

13. (a) During the drafting process which lasted for more than two years, several drafts of the Bill were put on the FSB's website followed by media statements inviting comments. The media statements were also sent to interested parties whose names are reflected in Annexure A. The drafts were either e-mailed or made available in hard copies to interested parties.

(b) Several television and radio programmes on the Bill took place. As the Bill attracted significant interest within the ranks of the financial services sector, the FSB hosted a number of public workshops and working groups across the country for purposes of discussing the contents of the Bill and explaining its possible effect on the industry.

(c) This extensive process resulted in a vast number of written, electronic and oral comments being received by the FSB on almost every facet of the Bill. All of these were duly considered by the drafters and the basic approach was to accommodate proposals unless there was a distinct reason to discard them.

(d) It is simply not possible to provide a list of all parties who commented on the Bill as many of these were received during workshops and other discussions. Suffice to say that overwhelming response was received over the entire period during which the Bill was framed and that its final text is the result of a collective effort by the drafters and those interested parties who contributed in one way or another to its content.

(e) Finally it should be stated that the Policy Board also took responsibility for ensuring that the Bill was properly and extensively consulted.

FINANCIAL, ORGANISATIONAL AND PERSONNEL IMPLICATIONS

14. Once promulgated, the Act will be administered by the Financial Services Board, which is funded by a levy system imposed on the financial services industry. The Bill therefore has no financial, organisational or personnel implications for the State.

CONSTITUTIONAL IMPLICATIONS

15. Due care has been taken during the drafting process to ensure that there is no ground on which it could be claimed that the Bill might be inconsistent with the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996.

COMMUNICATION IMPLICATIONS

16. The Bill does not have communication implications other than the commencement of the Bill as an Act of Parliament being published in the Gazette.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

17. In the opinion of the Financial Services Board and the State Law Advisers this Bill should be dealt with in terms of section 75 of the Constitution as none of the procedures laid down in sections 74 and 76 of the Constitution are applicable.
