

Limitations on carriage of infants, children and passengers with disability

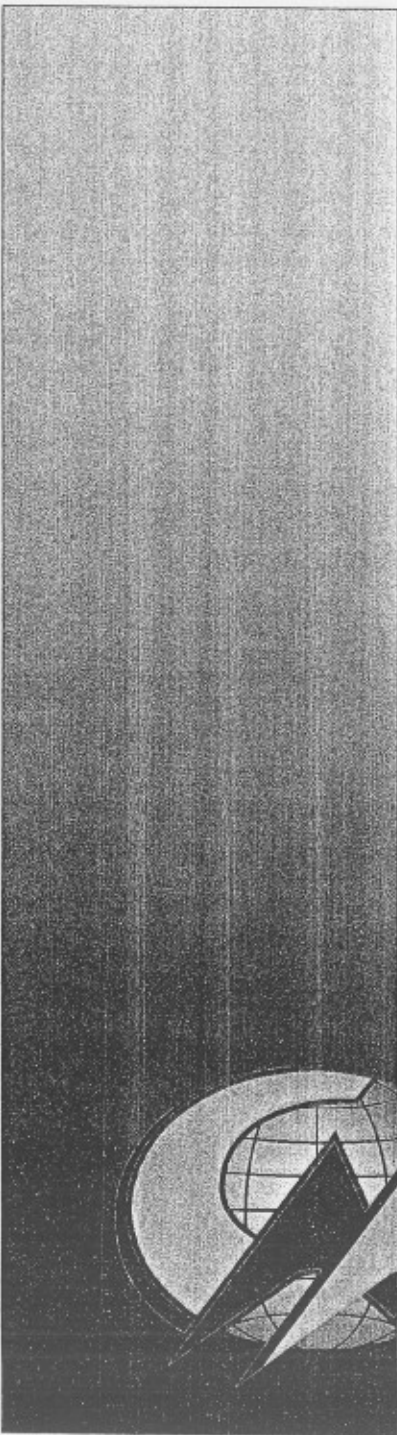

- (4) The operator may establish procedures, other than the procedures referred to in sub-regulations (1), (2) and (3), for the carriage of infants, children, and passengers with a disability: Provided that such procedures -
 - (a) do not jeopardise aviation safety; and
 - (b) prior written approval is obtained from the Commissioner.

South African Civil Aviation Authority

Draft proposal of the regulations

- 121.07.15 Carriage of passengers with disability

- 6) A passenger with a splinted or artificial limb may travel unaccompanied provided he or she is able to comply with safety regulations.
- (8) If a passenger with a splinted or artificial limb cannot comply with safety regulations, the passenger shall be accompanied by an able-bodied assistant.

South African Civil Aviation Authority

Draft proposal of the regulations

- Limitations on carriage of infants, children and passengers with disability
- 121.07.16
- 2) At least one able-bodied assistant shall be carried for every group of five passengers with a disability or unaccompanied minors, or a part or combination thereof, and such assistant shall be assigned with the responsibility of the safety of such passengers or minors: Provided that the passenger with a disability has the ability to comply with safety regulations.
- (3) In addition to the provisions of sub-regulation (2), for each one passenger with a disability who cannot comply with safety regulations, an assistant shall be assigned to solely assist such passenger.

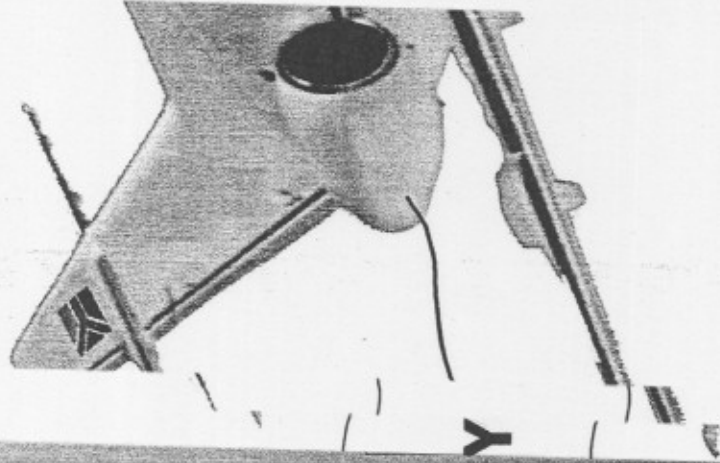

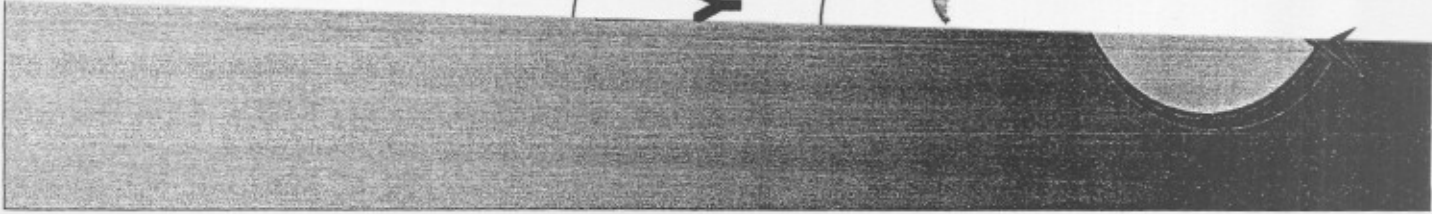

South African Civil Aviation Authority

Draft proposal of the regulations

- (4) The operator may establish procedures, other than the procedures referred to in sub-regulations (1), (2) and (3), for the carriage of infants, children, and passengers with a disability: Provided that such procedures -
 - (a) do not jeopardise aviation safety;
 - (b) were made after in consultation with a representatives from the disability sector
 - (c) prior written approval is obtained from the Commissioner.

South African Civil Aviation Authority

Sh African Civi