BILL

To prohibit mercenary activity; to regulate the provision of assistance or service of a military or military-related nature in a country of armed conflict; to regulate the enlistment of South African citizens or permanent residents in other armed forces; to regulate the provision of humanitarian aid in a country of armed conflict; to provide for extra-territorial jurisdiction for the courts of the Republic with regard to certain offences; to provide for offences and penalties; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, provides in section 198(b) that the resolve to live in peace and harmony precludes any South African citizen from participating in armed conflict, nationally or internationally, except as provided for in the Constitution or national legislation;

AND WHEREAS it is necessary to prohibit mercenary activity in order to give effect to the values in our Constitution and our international obligations;

AND WHEREAS it is also necessary, in the interest of promoting and protecting human rights and fundamental freedoms, universally, to regulate the enlistment of South African citizens and permanent residents in other armed forces and to regulate the provision of military and military-related assistance or services by South African juristic persons, citizens, persons permanently resident in the Republic and in certain circumstances, foreign citizens,

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

- (2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

Prohibition and regulation of certain assistance or rendering of services in country of armed conflict or regulated country

3. (1) No person may within the Republic or elsewhere—
- (a) negotiate or offer to provide any assistance or render any service to a party to an armed conflict or in a regulated country, unless such a person has been granted authorisation in terms of section 7 to negotiate or offer such assistance or service; 10
 - (b) provide any assistance or render any service to a party to an armed conflict or in a regulated country, unless such assistance is provided or such service is rendered in accordance with an agreement or arrangement authorised in terms of section 7; 15
 - (c) recruit, use, train, support or finance any person to provide assistance or render any service to a party to an armed conflict or in a regulated country, unless such person has been authorised in terms of section 7 to recruit, use, train, support or finance such a person; 20
 - (d) recruit, use, train, support or finance any person to provide assistance or render a service to a party to an armed conflict or in a regulated country unless such a person is recruited, used, trained, supported or financed in accordance with an agreement or arrangement authorised in terms of section 7; or 25
 - (e) perform any other act that has the result of furthering the military interests of a party to an armed conflict or in a regulated country, unless such a person has been authorised in terms of section 7.
- (2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

Prohibition and regulation of enlistment of South Africans in armed forces 30

4. (1) No South African citizen or permanent resident may enlist with any armed force, other than the Defence Force, including an armed force of any foreign state, unless he or she has been authorised in terms of section 7.

(2) Subject to section 7(5) and (6), an authorisation granted in terms of section 7 may be revoked if the person to whom the authorisation has been granted takes part in an armed conflict as a member of an armed force other than the Defence Force and such authorisation contravenes any one of the criteria listed in section 9. 35

Prohibition and regulation of humanitarian assistance in country of armed conflict

5. (1) No South African humanitarian organisation may provide humanitarian assistance in a country where there is an armed conflict or a regulated country, unless such organisation has been registered with the Committee for that purpose. 40

(2) An organisation referred to in subsection (1) must submit to the Committee an application for registration in the prescribed form and manner.

Proclamation of regulated country

6. (1) The Committee must inform the National Executive, whenever it is of the opinion that— 45

- (a) an armed conflict exists or is imminent in any country; and
- (b) such a country should be proclaimed to be a regulated country.

(2) After the Committee has informed the National Executive in the manner contemplated in subsection (1), the President, as Head of the National Executive, may, by proclamation in the Gazette, proclaim a country as a regulated country. 50

(3) The President must notify Parliament of any proclamation issued in terms of subsection (2).

(4) This Act applies in a regulated country.

Application for authorisation

7. (1) Any person who applies for an authorisation referred to in section 3(1)(a) to (e) or section 4(1) must submit to the Committee an application for authorisation in the prescribed form and manner.
- (2) The Committee must consider any application for authorisation submitted in terms of subsection (1), and, subject to section 9, may—
- (a) refuse the application;
 - (b) grant the application subject to such conditions as it may determine; or
 - (c) at any time withdraw or amend an authorisation so granted.
- (3) No authorisation granted in terms of this section is transferable.
- (4) The prescribed fees in respect of an application for authorisation must be paid before the Committee makes its decision known.
- (5) Any person who feels aggrieved by a decision taken in terms of this section, may apply for written reasons in the manner contemplated in section 5 of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act, 2000 (Act No. 3 of 2000).
- (6) Nothing in this Act must be construed as preventing a person from instituting proceedings in a competent court for judicial review.

Register of declarations, authorisations and exemptions

8. (1) The Committee must maintain a register of any—
- (a) authorisation issued by the Committee, in terms of section 7(2);
 - (b) proclamation made by the President, in terms of section 6;
 - (c) exemption granted by the President, in terms of section 13;
 - (d) South African humanitarian organisations registered by the Committee, in terms of section 5; and
 - (e) South African citizens or permanent residents enlisted with an armed force whose enlistment is authorised by the Committee in terms of section 4.
- (2) The Committee must submit quarterly reports to the National Executive and Parliament with regard to the register.

Criteria for authorisation or exemption

9. An authorisation in terms of section 7(2), and exemption in terms of section 13, may be given, unless it—
- (a) is in conflict with the Republic's obligations in terms of international law;
 - (b) would result in the infringement of human rights and fundamental freedoms in the territory where the assistance or service is to be rendered or the exemption granted;
 - (c) endangers the peace by introducing destabilising military capabilities into the region or territory where the assistance or service, or humanitarian aid, is or is likely to be, provided or rendered;
 - (d) would contribute to regional instability or negatively influence the balance of power in such region or territory;
 - (e) in any manner supports or encourages any terrorist activity or terrorist and related activities, as defined in section 1 of the Protection of Constitutional Democracy against Terrorist and Related Activities Act, 2004 (Act No. 33 of 2004);
 - (f) contributes to the escalation of regional conflicts;
 - (g) in any manner initiates, causes or furthers an armed conflict, or a coup d'état, uprising or rebellion against a government; or
 - (h) prejudices the Republic's national or international interests.

Offences and penalties

10. (1) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with section 4(1) or section 5, or contravenes or fails to comply with a condition determined in respect of an application in terms of section 7(2)(b) or section 13 is guilty of an offence and liable upon conviction to a fine or to imprisonment, or to both a fine and imprisonment.

(2) A person referred to in section 15(2) who fails to apply for the authorisation within the period referred to in that subsection, and remains so enlisted, is guilty of an offence and liable, upon conviction, to a fine or to imprisonment or to both a fine and imprisonment.

(3) The court may, when convicting any person of an offence under this Act declare any armament, weapon, vehicle, uniform, equipment or other property or object in respect of which the offence was committed or which was used for, in or in connection with the commission of the offence, to be forfeited to the State in the manner contemplated in section 35 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977).

Extra-territorial jurisdiction 10

11. (1) Any act constituting an offence under this Act and that is committed outside the Republic by—

- (a) a citizen of the Republic;
- (b) a person ordinarily resident in the Republic;
- (c) a company incorporated or registered as such under any law, in the Republic;

or

(d) any body of persons, corporate or unincorporated, in the Republic, must be regarded as having been committed in the Republic and the person who committed it may be tried in a court in the Republic which has jurisdiction in respect of that offence. 20

(2) (a) Any act that constitutes an offence under section 2 of this Act and that is committed outside the Republic by a person, other than a person contemplated in subsection (1), against the Republic, its citizens or residents must be regarded as having been committed in the Republic if that person is found in the Republic.

(b) A person contemplated in paragraph (a) may be tried for such an offence by a South African court if there is no application for the extradition of the person or if such an application has been refused. 25

(3) Any offence contemplated in subsection (1) or (2), is, for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of a court to try the offence, regarded as having been committed at— 30

- (a) the place where the accused is ordinarily resident;
- (b) the accused's principal place of business; or
- (c) the place where the accused was arrested.

(4) Where a person is charged with conspiracy or incitement to commit an offence or as an accessory after the fact, the offence is regarded as having been committed not only at the place where the act was committed, but also at every place where the conspirator, inciter or accessory acted or in the case of an omission, should have acted. 35

Regulations

12. (1) The President as Head of the National Executive, may make regulations relating to— 40

- (a) any matter which is required or permitted in terms of this Act to be prescribed;
- (b) the consideration of an application for an authorisation in terms of section 7(2);
- (c) the maintenance of the register; and
- (d) generally any other ancillary or incidental administrative or procedural matter which it may be expedient or necessary to prescribe for the proper implementation or administration of this Act. 45

(2) A regulation may prescribe a penalty of a fine or of imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years, or both a fine and such imprisonment, for any contravention thereof or any failure to comply therewith. 50

Exemptions

13. The President as Head of the National Executive may, subject to section 9, upon request in the prescribed form and manner, exempt any humanitarian aid organisation from the provisions of section 5 of this Act, if such exemption would facilitate the rendering of humanitarian aid, without delay, in order to relieve the plight of civilians in an armed conflict, and subject to such conditions as he or she may determine. 55

Amendment and repeal of laws

14. (1) The Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1997 (Act No. 105 of 1997), is hereby amended to the extent set out in the Schedule.

(2) The Regulation of Foreign Military Assistance Act, 1998 (Act No. 15 of 1998), is hereby repealed. 5

Transitional provisions

15. (1) Any authorisation or approval granted in terms of the Regulation of Foreign Military Assistance Act, 1998 (Act No. 15 of 1998), remains in force and effect until withdrawn or amended or until expiry of the term for which it was granted.

(2) (a) A citizen of the Republic or a person ordinarily resident in the Republic who, at the time of the commencement of this Act, had already been enlisted in an armed force, must within six months of the date of commencement of this Act, apply for authorisation in the manner required by section 7; and 10

(b) If a citizen or person contemplated in paragraph (a), filed an application for authorisation within the period provided for in that paragraph, the citizen or person may remain so enlisted until the application is decided. 15

(3) (a) Any person who, at the time of the commencement of this Act, is involved in the activities contemplated in section 3(1)(a) to (e) that did not constitute an offence under the Regulation of Foreign Military Assistance Act, 1998 (Act No. 15 of 1998), must within six months of the date of commencement of this Act, apply for authorisation 20 in the manner required by section 7.

(b) If a person contemplated in paragraph (a) filed an application for authorisation within the period provided for in that paragraph, the person who conducts that activity may continue with the activity until the application is decided.

(4) All formal hearings and court proceedings instituted, prior to the commencement of this Act, in terms of the Regulation of Foreign Military Assistance Act, 1998, and that have not been concluded before the commencement of this Act, must be continued with and concluded as if this Act had not been passed. 25

Short title and commencement

16. This Act is called the Prohibition of Mercenary Activities and Regulation of Certain Activities in Country of Armed Conflict Act, 2006, and comes into operation on a date determined by the President by Proclamation in the Gazette. 30

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE PROHIBITION OF MERCENARY ACTIVITIES AND REGULATION OF CERTAIN ACTIVITIES IN COUNTRY OF ARMED CONFLICT BILL, 2006

1. BACKGROUND

Although the Regulation of Foreign Military Assistance Act, 1998 (Act No. 15 of 1998), had been in operation for a considerable time, very few prosecutions have been instituted in terms of that Act. In most cases a conviction followed, only after a plea bargain was entered into between the prosecution and the accused.

The recent arrest of a number of South African citizens, allegedly involved in a planned coup d'état aimed at the Government of Equatorial Guinea, demonstrates that mercenary activities are undertaken from within the borders of the Republic. There is a continuation in the recruitment of South Africans by so-called private military companies from outside the Republic, to provide military and security services in areas of armed conflict (such as Iraq).

It is evident from the small number of prosecutions and convictions under the Regulation of Foreign Military Assistance Act, 1998, that the Act inadequately combats mercenary activities and fails to provide for the regulation of certain forms of assistance in armed conflicts effectively.

It is proposed that the Regulation of Foreign Military Assistance Act, 1998, be repealed and replaced with the Prohibition of Mercenary Activities and Regulation of Certain Activities in Country of Armed Conflict Bill, 2006 (hereinafter referred to as "the Bill").

2. OBJECTS OF BILL

The Bill proposes to:

- (a) Prohibit mercenary activity in order to give effect to the values contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, and to the international obligations of the Republic;
- (b) exclude from the ambit of "assistance or service" any act if such act is—
 - performed in accordance with the principles of international law, especially international humanitarian law; or
 - performed by the security services as contemplated in section 199 of the Constitution, 1996;
- (c) regulate the enlistment of South African citizens and permanent residents in other armed forces and to regulate the provision of military and military-related services. Authorisation to enlist in armed forces other than the Defence Force may be revoked in certain circumstances;
- (d) empower the President, as head of the National Executive, to proclaim a country as a regulated country;
- (e) provide for extraterritorial jurisdiction in respect of persons who are citizens or permanent residents of the Republic or where a person has committed an offence in terms of the Act outside the borders of the Republic;
- (f) authorise the provision of humanitarian aid under certain circumstances to relieve the plight of civilians in a country where there is an armed conflict;
- (g) provide for penalties which are aligned with the seriousness of the offence.

3. OTHER DEPARTMENTS/BODIES/PERSONS CONSULTED

All Departments represented at the International Relations, Peace and Security Cluster were consulted. These include Departments with a direct interest in the Bill, such as Safety and Security, Intelligence, Justice and Constitutional Development and Foreign Affairs.

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

None.

5. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- 5.1 The State Law Advisers and the Department of Defence are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
- 5.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
