Traditional Dishes

Set in the historic first black township of Langa where one must experience the diverse cultures that comprise the Western Cape.

This township is not merely a place of squatting, crime and deprivation. Amidst the apparently grim living circumstances, there is hospitality, hope and even beauty. 8 minutes from the Cape Town Airport and 10 minutes from Central Cape Town.

-Ulusu (Stewed sheep tripe)

Best served with or pap or umngquso (samp)

-Nyama ya figo (Beef steak and kidney)

Tanzanian dish from Dar-sSalaam prepared with vegetables best served with rice

-Ungqusho (Samp and beans)

Best served with tripe or stewed chicken

-Pap (Porridge)

Part of staple diet for many people in South Africa. Best served with tripe or enjoyed tea or coffee.
