BILL

To amend the—

- Electoral Commission Act, 1996, so as to abolish the right of a political party to change its name at any time;
 - Public Funding of Represented Political Parties Act, 1997, so as to—
 - further regulate the repayment of unspent balances of all moneys allocated to political parties participating in Parliament and provincial legislatures from the Represented Political Parties' Fund when such political parties cease to qualify for such moneys;
 - substitute a reference to an obsolete law;
 - empower the Electoral Commission to appoint an auditor in certain circumstances; and
 - provide for offences applicable to accounting officers and leaders of political parties; and
 - Public Funding of Represented Political Parties Act, 1997, the Determination of Delegates (National Council of Provinces) Act, 1998, the Electoral Act, 1998, the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998, and the Local Government: Municipal Structures Amendment Act, 2002, so as to provide for matters consequential to the abolition of the right—
 - of a member of the National Assembly, a provincial legislature or a Municipal Council to become a member of another political party whilst retaining membership of the National Assembly, that provincial legislature or that Council; and
 - of an existing political party to merge with another political party, or to subdivide into more than one political party, or to subdivide and to permit any of the subdivisions to merge with another political party, whilst allowing a member of the National Assembly, a provincial legislature or a Council affected by such changes to retain membership of the National Assembly, that provincial legislature or that Council;
- and to provide for matters connected therewith.

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

Repeal of section 16A of Act 51 of 1996, as inserted by section 30 of Act 34 of 2003

1. Section 16A of the Electoral Commission Act, 1996, is hereby repealed.

Amendment of section 5 of Act 103 of 1997, as amended by section 2 of Act 15 of 2005

2. Section 5 of the Public Funding of Represented Political Parties Act, 1997 (hereinafter referred to as the Funding Act), is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (4) of the following subsection: 5

“(4) The allocation of moneys from the Fund to a political party will end when the party ceases qualifying therefor in terms of subsection (1)(a). [Subject to section 6A, a political party must within 21 days after the date on which it has so ceased to qualify, repay to the Commission the unspent balances, as at that date, of all moneys that had been allocated to it in terms of this section.]”. 10

Amendment of section 6 of Act 103 of 1997, as amended by section 3 of Act 15 of 2005

3. Section 6 of the Funding Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) Every political party to which moneys are allocated from the Fund[, must]— 15

(a) must keep, with a bank registered in the Republic, a separate banking account into which all moneys so allocated to the party must be deposited; [and]

(b) must appoint an office-bearer or official of that party as its accounting officer with regard to all moneys from time to time allocated to that party from the Fund. The accounting officer’s responsibility is to account for the moneys so allocated to that party, and includes, in addition to any other duties imposed by this Act, the duty to ensure the party’s compliance with the requirements of this Act, and, in particular, to ensure that those moneys are not paid out for a purpose not authorised by this Act; and 25

(c) is accountable to the Commission in respect of all moneys so allocated to that party.”;

(b) by the substitution in subsection (3) for paragraph (b) of the following paragraph: 30

“(b) submit that statement and those books and records of account to [a public accountant and] an auditor registered and practising as such in terms of the [Public Accountants’ and Auditors’ Act, 1991 (Act No. 80 of 1991)] Auditing Profession Act, 2005 (Act No. 26 of 2005), to be audited.”; and 35

(c) by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (5):

“(5A) (a) The Commission may appoint an auditor registered and practising as such in terms of the Auditing Profession Act, 2005, to— 40

(i) verify the auditor’s report and audited statement submitted to it in terms of subsection (5); or

(ii) audit the statement referred to in subsection (3) and the books and records of account kept in terms of this section if the accounting officer of a political party fails to have that statement and those books and records of account audited as contemplated in subsection (3). 45

(b) Subsection (4) applies, with the necessary changes, to an auditor who has performed an audit contemplated in paragraph (a)(ii).

(c) The verification of the auditor’s report and audited statement contemplated in paragraph (a)(i) or the auditor’s report and audited statement contemplated in paragraph (a)(ii), as the case may be, must be submitted to the Commission by the auditor concerned within one month after the date of his or her appointment by the Commission.”. 50

Repeal of section 6A of Act 103 of 1997, as inserted by section 4 of Act 15 of 2005

4. Section 6A of the Funding Act is hereby repealed.

Insertion of section 6B in Act 103 of 1997

5. The following section is hereby inserted in the Funding Act after section 6A:

“Repayment of unspent balances where party ceases to qualify for allocation of moneys from Fund or where Parliament and every provincial legislature are dissolved or where Parliament or any provincial legislature is dissolved 5

6B. (1) A political party which qualified for the allocation of moneys from the Fund in terms of section 5 must, in accordance with this section, repay to the Commission the unspent balances of all moneys that had been allocated to it in terms of that section if it ceases to qualify for the allocation of moneys from the Fund in terms of the said section. 10

(2) A political party which immediately before the date on which—
 (a) Parliament and every provincial legislature are dissolved in terms of the Constitution; or 15
 (b) Parliament or any provincial legislature is so dissolved in any other circumstances,

qualified for the allocation of moneys from the Fund in terms of section 5 and was represented in any or all of those legislative bodies or the legislative body that dissolves must, in accordance with this section, repay to the Commission the unspent balances of all moneys that had been allocated to it in terms of that section. 20

(3) The person who last held the office of accounting officer contemplated in section 6(1)(b) of a political party contemplated in subsection (1) or (2), or if he or she is not available the leader of that party, must within 14 days after the date on which— 25

(a) the party has ceased to qualify for the allocation of moneys from the Fund as contemplated in subsection (1); or
 (b) a legislative body referred to in subsection (2) is dissolved as contemplated in that subsection, 30 close the books and records of account of the party kept in terms of section 6.

(4) The accounting officer or the leader of the party, as the case may be, must within one month after the date on which the books and records of account of the party have been closed in terms of subsection (3)— 35

(a) prepare a statement showing—
 (i) all amounts received by the party from the Fund during that financial year and its application of those moneys, as well as the purposes for which the various amounts have been applied; 40
 (ii) the unspent balances of the party, if any, as at the date when its books and records of account are so closed, of all moneys that had been allocated to it in terms of section 5; and
 (iii) all the existing legal financial obligations of the party until the end of the financial year in question; and 45

(b) submit that statement and those books and records of account to an auditor registered and practising as such in terms of the Auditing Profession Act, 2005 (Act No. 26 of 2005), to be audited.

(5) An auditor who has performed an audit contemplated in subsection (4)(b), must in the auditor’s report express an opinion— 50

(a) as to whether or not the allocated moneys were spent for purposes authorised by this Act; and
 (b) on the correctness of the information referred to in subsection (4)(a)(ii) and (iii). 55

(6) The auditor’s report and audited statement, as well as all statements for the financial year in question of the banking account of the political party kept in terms of section 6(1)(a) and documents in support of the information referred to in subsection (4)(a)(iii), must be submitted to the Commission by the accounting officer or the leader of the party, as the case may be, within two months after the date on which the books and records of account of the party were closed.

(7) The Commission must within two months after receipt of the auditor's report, audited statement, statements of the banking account of the political party and documents in support of the information referred to in subsection (4)(a)(iii) submitted to it in terms of subsection (6)—

(a) determine the amount of the unspent balances of all moneys that had been allocated to the political party in terms of section 5 that must be repaid to the Commission, taking into account the information referred to in subsection (4)(a)(iii), provided that in the case of a party mentioned in subsection (2)(b)—

(i) the representation of that party, in a dissolving legislative body, must be calculated by the Commission as a percentage of the party's representation in all of the legislative bodies contemplated in subsection (2)(a); and

(ii) that determined percentage of any unspent balances must be repaid to the Commission;

(b) determine the date on which that amount of unspent balances of moneys must be repaid to the Commission, which date must as far as the circumstances permit be before the last day of the financial year in question; and

(c) inform the accounting officer or the leader of the party, as the case may be, of the amount and date determined in terms of paragraphs (a) and (b).

(8) (a) The Commission may for the purposes of subsection (7)(a)—

(i) direct the accounting officer or the leader of the party, as the case may be, to provide it with such other information as it may deem necessary; and

(ii) appoint an auditor registered and practising as such in terms of the Auditing Profession Act, 2005 (Act No. 26 of 2005), to—
(aa) verify the auditor's report and audited statement submitted to it in terms of subsection (6); or

(bb) audit the statement referred to in subsection (4)(a) and the books and records of account kept in terms of section 6.

(b) Subsection (5) applies, with the necessary changes, to an auditor who has performed an audit contemplated in paragraph (a)(ii)(bb).

(c) The verification of the auditor's report and audited statement contemplated in paragraph (a)(ii)(aa) or the auditor's report and audited statement contemplated in paragraph (a)(ii)(bb), as the case may be, must be submitted to the Commission by the auditor concerned within one month after the date of his or her appointment by the Commission.

(9) The accounting officer or the leader of the party, as the case may be, must—

(a) within 14 days after the receipt of a direction referred to in subsection (8)(a)(i), comply therewith; and

(b) repay to the Commission the amount of the unspent balances of moneys contemplated in subsection (7)(a) on or before the date determined in terms of subsection (7)(b).

(10) Any unspent balances of moneys repaid in terms of this section during a particular financial year, must be credited to the Fund and carried forward to the next financial year.”.

Amendment of section 9 of Act 103 of 1997, as amended by section 6 of Act 15 of 2005

6. Section 9 of the Funding Act is hereby amended by the deletion of subsections (3) and (4).

Substitution of section 9A of Act 103 of 1997, as inserted by section 7 of Act 15 of 2005

7. The following section is hereby substituted for section 9A of the Funding Act:

“Offences and penalties

9A. Any person who—

- (a) contravenes or fails to comply with section [6A(4), (6) or (9)(b)] 5(3), 6(2), (3) or (5) or 6B(3), (4), (6) or (9)(b); or 10
- (b) fails to comply with a direction in terms of section [6A(9)(a)] 6B(9)(a), 15
- is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years.”.

Amendment of section 10 of Act 103 of 1997, as amended by section 8 of Act 15 of 2005

8. Section 10 of the Funding Act is hereby amended by the substitution in subsection (1) for paragraph (d) of the following paragraph:

“(d) prescribing the procedure according to which and manner in which payments 20 from, and to, the Fund are to be made after any election of Parliament or a provincial legislature [or the expiry of the period referred to in item 4(1)(a) or (b) of Schedule 6A to the Constitution]; and”.

Amendment of Preamble of Act 103 of 1997, as amended by section 9 of Act 15 of 2005

9. The Preamble of the Funding Act is hereby amended by the deletion of the fifth paragraph.

Amendment of section 2 of Act 69 of 1998, as amended by section 11 of Act 15 of 2005

10. Section 2 of the Determination of Delegates (National Council of Provinces) Act, 1998, is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (4) of the following subsection:

“(4) (a) If the total number of special delegates determined in terms of subsection (3) in respect of a particular provincial legislature is less than four, the delegates of the parties that are entitled to only one delegate in the delegation of that province must, despite subsection (1), become special delegates in the sequence from the lowest to the highest number of votes[, including combined votes in the case of a merged party contemplated in section 61(2)(b) of the Constitution,] that have been recorded for those parties during the last election of that provincial legislature, until four special delegates have been allocated to 35 parties in the provincial delegation.

(b) If the total number of special delegates determined in terms of subsection (3) in respect of a particular provincial legislature is more than four, those special delegates must, despite subsections (2) and (3), become permanent delegates in the sequence from the highest to the lowest number of votes[, including combined votes in the case of a merged party contemplated in section 61(2)(b) of the Constitution,] that have been recorded for the parties concerned during the last election of that provincial legislature, until six permanent delegates have been allocated to parties in the provincial delegation. 45

[(c) For the purposes of paragraphs (a) and (b), any party that is entitled to a delegate in the delegation of the province concerned and that—

(i) came into existence on account of a change of party membership or subdivision of parties contemplated in section 61(2)(b) of the Constitution; and

(ii) did not participate in the last election of that provincial legislature, must be regarded as having recorded no votes during the last election of the provincial legislature concerned.]

(d) If more than one party that is entitled to a delegate in a provincial legislature recorded the same number of votes during the last election of that provincial legislature [or must be regarded in terms of paragraph (c) as having recorded no votes during that election], the legislature concerned must, in a manner that is consistent with democracy—

(i) in the case of paragraph (a), elect so many delegates from the delegates of those parties to become special delegates as may be required to allocate four special delegates to parties in the provincial delegation; or

(ii) in the case of paragraph (b), despite subsections (2) and (3), elect so many special delegates of those parties to become permanent delegates as may be required to allocate six permanent delegates to parties in the provincial delegation.”.

Short title and commencement

25. This Act is called the General Laws (Loss of Membership of National Assembly, Provincial Legislature or Municipal Council) Amendment Act, 2008, and comes into operation on a date set by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE GENERAL LAWS (LOSS OF MEMBERSHIP OF NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE OR MUNICIPAL COUNCIL)
AMENDMENT BILL, 2008

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 The political terrain which necessitated floor crossing has changed. There is also a groundswell of resistance opposing floor crossing. Consequently, the need has arisen to abolish floor crossing. The Constitution Fourteenth Amendment Bill of 2008, seeks to abolish floor crossing in the National Assembly and provincial legislatures, whilst the Constitution Fifteenth Amendment Bill of 2008, seeks to abolish floor crossing in Municipal Councils. The General Laws (Loss of Membership of National Assembly, Provincial Legislature or Municipal Council) Amendment Bill, 2008 (the Bill), mainly seeks to effect consequential amendments, which are mentioned below.
- 1.2 The Constitution Fourteenth Amendment Bill of 2008, the Constitution Fifteenth Amendment Bill of 2008, and the Bill are tabled simultaneously and must be read in conjunction with one another.

2. OBJECTS OF BILL

- 2.1 The objects of the Bill are—
- (a) to effect amendments, which are mainly of a consequential nature and which emanate from the provisions of the Constitution Fourteenth Amendment Bill of 2008, and the Constitution Fifteenth Amendment Bill of 2008, to several relevant Acts; and
- (b) to address matters raised by the Portfolio Committee on Justice and Constitutional Development in its Report on the Constitutional Matters Amendment Bill [B 22B—2005] (now the Constitutional Matters Amendment Act, 2005 (Act No. 15 of 2005)), dated 19 August 2005.

2.2 Proposed legislative amendments relating to floor crossing

The Bill seeks to effect amendments to the following Acts:

- (a) Electoral Commission Act, 1996 (Act No. 51 of 1996)
Clause 1 seeks to repeal section 16A of the Electoral Commission Act, 1996, that enables a political party to change its registered name, abbreviated name, distinguishing mark or symbol.
- (b) Public Funding of Represented Political Parties Act, 1997 (Act No. 103 of 1997)
Clause 4 seeks to repeal section 6A of the Public Funding of Represented Political Parties Act, 1997 (the Funding Act), that regulates the repayment to the Electoral Commission (the IEC) of the unspent balances of moneys by a political party that, after a window period for floor crossing, ceases to qualify for the allocation of moneys from the Represented Political Parties' Fund (the Fund). Clauses 7, 8 and 9 seek to effect consequential amendments to sections 9A and 10 and the Preamble of the Funding Act.
- (c) Determination of Delegates (National Council of Provinces) Act, 1998 (Act No. 69 of 1998)
Clause 10 seeks to effect consequential amendments to section 2 of the Determination of Delegates (National Council of Provinces) Act, 1998, that regulates the determination of permanent and special delegates in a province's delegation to the National Council of Provinces.
- (d) Electoral Act, 1998 (Act No. 73 of 1998)
Clause 11 seeks to effect a consequential amendment to item 23 of Schedule 1A to the Electoral Act, 1998, that regulates the filling of vacancies in the National Assembly and provincial legislatures.

- (e) Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998 (Act No. 117 of 1998)
Clauses 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 19, 20 and 21 seek to effect consequential amendments to sections 26, 29, 62, 63 and 66, item 10 of Schedule 1, item 4 of Schedule 2 and the Table of Contents of the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998 (the Structures Act).
Clause 13 seeks to amend section 27 of the Structures Act, that regulates the vacation of office of councillors, so as to re-insert two provisions that were deleted from that Act by section 2 of the Local Government: Municipal Structures Amendment Act, 2002 (Act No. 20 of 2002).
Clause 18 seeks to repeal sections 93A and 93B of the Structures Act that provide for special measures for the application of item 6 of Schedule 6B to the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (the Constitution), and the publication of certain notices relating to floor crossing by the IEC, respectively. Both sections will become redundant once floor crossing has been abolished.
- (f) Local Government: Municipal Structures Amendment Act, 2002
Clauses 22 and 23 seek to repeal sections 12 and 13 of the Local Government: Municipal Structures Amendment Act, 2002, as those two sections will, once floor crossing has been abolished, become redundant. Section 12 regulates the registration of new political parties for purposes of Schedule 6B to the Constitution (which Schedule is to be repealed by clause 5 of the Constitution Fifteenth Amendment Bill of 2008), whilst section 13 contains transitional arrangements. Clause 24 seeks to amend section 14 of the Local Government: Municipal Structures Amendment Act, 2002, that regulated the commencement of section 4 of the said Act.

2.3 Additional proposed amendments to the Funding Act

- 2.3.1 In order to address the matters raised by the Portfolio Committee on Justice and Constitutional Development in its Report referred to in paragraph 2.1(b) above, the Bill seeks to effect the following amendments to the Funding Act to harmonise the existing provisions thereof with the new provisions that were inserted in the Funding Act by the Constitutional Matters Amendment Act, 2005.
- 2.3.2 Ad clause 2
Clause 2 seeks to effect a consequential amendment to section 5(4) emanating from the proposed new section 6B(1) to be inserted in the Funding Act by clause 5.
- 2.3.3 Ad clause 3
Clause 3(a) seeks to amend section 6(1) to make it clear that all political parties are accountable to the IEC in respect of the moneys allocated to them from the Fund. The purpose of clause 3(b) is to substitute a reference to an obsolete Act of Parliament. Clause 3(c) seeks to insert a new subsection (5A) in section 6 that will empower the IEC to appoint an auditor under certain circumstances to, for example, audit the books and records of account kept by a political party.
- 2.3.4 Ad clause 5
The Funding Act presently provides for three scenarios where a political party has to repay to the IEC the unspent balances of all moneys that have been allocated to it in terms of section 5 of the Funding Act, namely—
- (a) where a political party ceases to qualify for the allocation of moneys from the Fund (existing section 5(4));
 - (b) where a political party, after a window period for floor crossing, ceases to qualify for the allocation of moneys from the Fund (existing section 6A); and

- (c) if Parliament and every provincial legislature are dissolved in terms of the Constitution or if Parliament or any provincial legislature is so dissolved in any other circumstances (existing section 9(3) and (4)).

As clause 4 seeks to repeal section 6A of the Funding Act, the circumstances referred to in paragraph (b) above under which a political party has to repay to the IEC the unspent balances of all moneys that have been allocated to it, will fall away. Clause 5, however, seeks to insert a new section 6B in the Funding Act which brings the repayment to the IEC of the unspent balances of moneys in circumstances referred to in paragraphs (a) and (c) above in line with such repayment in circumstances referred to in paragraph (b) above.

2.3.5 Ad clause 6

Section 9(3) and (4) of the Funding Act regulates the repayment to the IEC of the unspent balances of all moneys that have been allocated to a political party if Parliament and every provincial legislature are dissolved in terms of the Constitution or if Parliament or any provincial legislature is so dissolved in any other circumstances. The proposed new section 6B(2) seeks to regulate this matter and therefore section 9(3) and (4) will become redundant and needs to be deleted. Clause 6 seeks to give effect thereto.

2.3.6 Ad clause 7

Clause 7 seeks to amend section 9A to make certain offences also applicable to—

- (a) the accounting officers of political parties that qualify for the allocation of moneys from the Fund; and
- (b) the accounting officers or leaders of political parties that have to repay to the IEC their unspent balances of moneys in terms of the proposed new section 6B.

- 2.4 As the next window period for floor crossing on local government level is in September 2009, the Bill, the Constitution Fourteenth Amendment Bill of 2008, and the Constitution Fifteenth Amendment Bill of 2008, have to be passed by Parliament and implemented before 1 September 2009.

3. DEPARTMENTS/BODIES/PERSONS CONSULTED

- (a) The Bill was published in the national Gazette for public comment as required by section 154(2) of the Constitution.
- (b) The Department of Provincial and Local Government was consulted.

4. IMPLICATIONS FOR PROVINCES

The Bill seeks to further regulate—

- (a) the determination of permanent and special delegates to the National Council of Provinces; and
- (b) the filling of vacancies in provincial legislatures.

5. IMPLICATIONS FOR MUNICIPALITIES

As discussed in paragraph 2.2 above.

6. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

None.

7. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- 7.1 The State Law Advisers and the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
- 7.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
