(2) If a private [provider] education institution fails to comply with the policy, the Council must—

- (a) notify such private [provider] education institution in writing and set out the nature and extent of the failure; and 35
- (b) determine a reasonable period within which the private [provider] education institution must comply with the policy.

(3) At the expiry of the period contemplated in subsection (2)(b), the Council—

- (a) must evaluate the steps taken by the private [provider] education institution to comply with the policy and take into account any submissions made by the [provider] education institution; and 40
- (b) may affirm the accreditation of the private [provider] education institution or withdraw the accreditation as from a date specified by the Council.”.

Short Title

16. This Act is called the General and Further Education and Training Quality Assurance Amendment Act, 2008. 45

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE GENERAL AND FURTHER EDUCATION AND TRAINING QUALITY ASSURANCE
AMENDMENT BILL, 2008

1. OBJECTS

This Bill seeks to effect amendments to the General and Further Education and Training Quality Assurance Act, 2001 (Act No. 58 of 2001). These amendments are consequential to the provisions of the envisaged National Qualifications Framework Act. The National Qualifications Framework Bill, this Bill and the Higher Education Amendment Bill are tabled simultaneously and must be read in conjunction with one another. The reasons and objects of these Bills are dealt with in the Memorandum on the Objects of the National Qualifications Framework Bill.

2. OTHER DEPARTMENTS OR BODIES CONSULTED

The National Qualifications Framework Bill, this Bill and the Higher Education Amendment Bill were published for comments in the Gazette. The Bills were also referred to the Departments of Labour, Agriculture, Water Affairs and Forestry, the National Treasury and the South African Police Service.

Approximately 30 comments were received from various stakeholders and members of the public. All comments were evaluated by a committee, which included a deputy director-general, chief directors and directors. Those comments were presented to the Minister with a recommendation before the Bill was finalised and submitted to Cabinet for approval.

3. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

The Bill merely provides for consequential amendments to existing legislation, and therefore no additional costs are foreseen.

4. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

4.1 The State Law Advisers and the Department of Education are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 76 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, since it falls within a functional area listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution, namely "Education at all levels, excluding tertiary education".

4.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
