Narrative:
The provision to appoint Special Advisers in terms of Section 12 A of the PSA, 1994, as amended is limited to two full-time equivalent positions for each Minister and Premier, unless Cabinet or the relevant Provincial Executive Council; approves a higher number up to two additional full-time equivalents for each Minister and Premier because of work requirements. The dispensation further stipulates that Special Advisers appointed on a full-time basis are compelled to work 40 hrs per week. Part-time Special Advisers hours of work should be recorded and claims should be submitted accordingly. A Minister or Premier may appoint more than two Special Advisers as long as the sum total of their weekly hours does not exceed 80 hours e.g one full-time and two part-time Special Advisers. The President and Deputy President may appoint any number of Special Advisers. Some Premiers and Ministers have not yet appointed Special Advisers.
